An official visit to the army barracks at Paderborn in West Germany recently cemented relationships between the Wanderers and the forces stationed at Bolton's twin town. The return visit quickly followed with a delegation from The Queen's, Lancashire Regiment being our guests for the Milk Cup tie against Stockport last month.

Going into today's game with only two points isn't the kind of start we were looking for this season.

Nor, I must admit, does it truly reflect the way we have played in some of our games. I don't wish to sound as if I am making excuses but I can only think of one game — the second half of our first match against Stockport in the Milk Cup — in which we have really had the run of the ball.

In practically every other game the run of the ball, the breaks, have gone against us.

What I don't want to do, however, is to gloss over the fact that we haven't played as well as we should. We have got to improve our standards in every single department.

We've got ourselves in a situation where we are making chances in every game. But we aren't sticking them away. It is time that changed.

We've conceded goals because the understanding between the back four and the goalkeeper has caused us problems. There are areas in every department which need to be improved considerably before we can be satisfied.

The most important skill in football is the ability to pass the ball accurately and control it with the first touch. And that up to now has been poor — particularly in our last two games.

We know we are capable of creating goalscoring chances, though, and if we can get a couple of goals to get us comfortably on our way today I'm sure you'll see us start buzzing.

Winning is infectious and starting today I think we can see our fortunes take off.

If there was one point above any other to take heart from on Tuesday night it was that despite things going against us the players battled right to the end and managed to get the late goal that forced the 1-1 draw with Stockport.

We've had a few injury and illness problems to contend with in the first few weeks of the season but we are all delighted that checks on Dave Sutton's injury ruled out the fear that he had broken his leg again.

That would have been a real blow to the lad and to us all. However the specialist has checked the X-Rays and diagnosed severe bruising which means a spell on the sidelines for the skipper.

Getting back to today's game, I'm sure a Bolton v Wolves fixture conjures up memories of some great games of the past.

In welcoming the players, officials and fans from Molineux I would like to hope that the game matches the quality of those earlier clashes.

WOLVES

WOLVES BATTLE TO STOP SLIDE

by Tony Pullein

Having dropped from the First to the Third Division in successive seasons, trouble-hit Wolves are now striving to halt the slide that so nearly put the club out of business. Though this famous club has been assailed from all sides, coach Sammy Chapman is battling on courageously.

Successive relegations heightened Wolves' financial plight and then they were ordered to close two of their stands under the new safety regulations. The departure of former manager Tommy Docherty, together with uncertainty as to whether the club would survive to start the season, meant no season tickets were sold.

Fortunes reached a lower ebb when Wolves lost their first three games of the season and found themselves level-bottom of Division Three. After losing at Brentford (1-2), they went down at home to Newport (1-2) and then crashed 2-4 at Derby.

Last Saturday they achieved their first win of the season, beating York City by 3-2 at Molineux so that lifted the gloom considerably. But, of course, there's a long way to go yet.

They have also unfortunately gone out of the Milk Cup in the first round where they lost by 2-1 on aggregate to Walsall.

Though he has one or two experienced players in his side, Mr Chapman is working largely with youngsters. Eight of the players who appeared in the team for their early games had less than 20 League matches behind them. Nick Clarke, Jon Purdie and Neil Edwards all made their League debuts at Brentford.

Scott Barrett, Derek Ryan and Campbell Chapman were all introduced to the team, some very briefly, last season whilst John Morrissey, signed from Everton, had enjoyed only one League outing for the Toffees.

Defender Steve Stoutt had played half-a-dozen times in Huddersfield's senior team before moving to Wolves in the summer.

Midfielder Andy King, once of Luton, Everton, Q.P.R. and W.B.A., is probably the only instantly-recognisable player in the side though defenders Ricky Herbert, a New Zealand international, Peter Zelem and David Barnes can look back on several seasons of League soccer with other clubs. Danny Crainie played in the Scottish League for Celtic whilst Mike Coady has several years of top-class experience behind him.

Mr Chapman is one who always looks on the bright side. "We cannot kid ourselves. We're not blessed with the most gifted players but it is to our advantage to have so many young players.

"Whilst they can't put the club's financial problems completely out of their minds, they really have only one objective in mind — simply to play football. Being young and unmarried, they don't have problems about paying the mortgage.

"Their spirit has been really marvellous and I hope we can get a few good results because they really deserve it for their dedication."

This is not the first time Wolves have played in the Third Division. They were relegated to the Third Division (North) in 1923 but, on that occasion, bounced back at the first attempt. That, sadly, looks unlikely this time and Mr Chapman will probably feel that, if he can keep the club in the Third Division this season, it could mark the end of the slide.

The long-term aim is to get the club back to the top. Over the years Wolves have influenced the development of the game and enjoyed many great triumphs.

Founded in 1877, they were one of the original 12 League clubs in 1888. They appeared in their first F.A. Cup final a year later, losing to Preston.

But they won the trophy in 1893 and took the Cup back to Molineux again in 1908, 1949 and 1960. They were beaten finalists in 1896, 1921 and 1939.

It wasn't until after the second world war that Wolves won the League Championship for the first time. Under the inspired managership of Stan Cullis, they lifted the title in 1954, 1958 and 1959. They were on the point of completing a hat-trick of Championships in 1960 but were pipped by Burnley on the last day.

It was during the 'fifties that Wolves pioneered the floodlit game, scoring a succession of famous victories over Europe's best clubs.

Wolves appeared in two League Cup finals, winning both. They defeated Manchester City 2-1 in 1974 and returned to Wembley to beat Nottingham Forest by 1-0 in 1982.

In 1972 they reached the UEFA Cup final, losing 2-3 on aggregate to Tottenham in an all-English final.

Their present problems started with relegation in 1982. The club seemed certain to fold that summer and it was only a desperate rescue-bid by former player Derek Dougan that saved it with just two minutes to spare before the deadline set by the Football League.

A miracle seemed to have been achieved when Wolves won promotion at the first attempt. Unfortunately, cash flow problems persisted. They were relegated from the First Division in 1984 and finished bottom of Division Two last season.

TIM FLOWERS (Defender). Tim served his apprenticeship at Molineux and, after making his League debut against Sheffield United on the opening day of last season, has held his place for much of the time since.

SCOTT BARRETT (Goalkeeper). Scott joined Wolves last season and made his League debut at Portsmouth in November. He played only four times in all but was recalled to the side after the start of the current campaign.

RICKY HERBERT (Defender). Ricky is a New Zealand international who was ever-present throughout the 1982 World Cup qualifying tournament and who also played in every match in the final stages in Spain. He once served a trial period with Southampton then returned to the other side of the world. Wolves signed him in 1984.

STEVE STOUTT (Defender). Steve was signed from Huddersfield this summer. He played as substitute in Wolves' opening game but then moved into the right-back position when Herbert was injured. He developed in Huddersfield's junior teams and made his League debut two seasons ago.

PETER ZELEM (Defender). Peter was signed from Chester last February. He made his League debut for the Sealand Road club in 1981 and made almost 150 first-team appearances before his move.

MIKE COADY (Defender). Mike opened his League career with Sunderland in 1976/77 but moved on to Carlisle for £20,000 in 1980. Two years later he went to Australia to join Sydney Olympic. He joined Wolves last season.

NICK CLARKE (Defender). Nick

developed in the junior teams and was elevated to first-team duty on the opening day of this season at Brentford. DAVID BARNES (Defender). David was signed from Ipswich last season. He opened his career with Coventry, making his League debut in 1979/80. Ipswich signed him in 1982.

JOHN MORRISSEY (Midfield). John served his apprenticeship with Everton but got only one game in their First Division side, at Luton on the closing day of last season. He moved on to Molineux in the summer and now hopes to establish himself in League football.

CAMPBELL CHAPMAN (Midfield). Campbell was signed from non-League Bilston and went straight into the Wolves' side, making his debut as substitute at Manchester City last season.

ANDY KING (Midfield). Andy was signed from Cambur, the Dutch club, last January. A former England Under-21 international, he made his first League appearance for Luton in 1975. Everton paid £35,000 for him a year later and he spent four highly successful seasons at Goodison Park before joining Q.P.R. for £425,000 in 1980. W.B.A. signed him for £400,000 in 1981 but, after about a year at The Hawthorns, he returned to Everton in an exchange deal. At the beginning of last season he decided to try his luck with Cambur.

DEREK RYAN (Midfield). Derek completed his apprenticeship with Wolves, graduating to first-team status last season.

NEIL EDWARDS (Forward). Neil was introduced to League soccer on the opening day of this season, celebrating with a goal against Brentford. He was on the mark again at Derby and got his third against York last Saturday.

JON PURDIE (Forward). Jon scored twice in his first four games in the team this season. He served his apprenticeship with Arsenal but was not in contention for a first-team place at Highbury. He made his League debut at Brentford last month.

DANNY CRAINIE (Forward). Danny was a member of Celtic's Scottish League Championship side of 1982. He joined Wolves two seasons ago.

CLUB NEWS

We welcome Wolverhampton Wanderers to Bolton today for the 93rd time in the Football League. The 'Wolves' have the better record having won 41 games to Bolton's 33, this being mainly due to Bolton's poor record at Molineux, their last victory there being in season 1959-60 when a single goal from Brian Birch was enough to win the points. Since then 10 visits have been made with three ending in draws and the rest in victory for Wolves.

Both clubs were founder members of the Football League and it was in those early days that Bolton registered their best victory over Wolves by 6-0 at Pikes Lane in December 1890 with goals from McNee (3), Turner, Gardiner and Cassidy. Bolton almost equalled that score in February 1955 with a 6-1 win at Burnden.

It was during that season that Bolton did the double over what was arguably the best team in the country at that time. Bolton had had a poor time against Wolves since the war with only three victories in 16 meetings, which included a 5-0 defeat at Burnden in 1948/49, a similar defeat at Molineux in 1946-47 and a 7-1 thrashing there in 1950-51. Season 1954-55 saw a change in fortunes.

Bolton visited Molineux in September 1954 to face the Wolves who were in second place in Division One, a point behind Manchester United, whilst Bolton were in mid-table. Bolton were without Nat Lofthouse who was injured and so Johnny Wheeler led the attack.

True to form the home side opened the scoring after 10 minutes when Bolton 'keeper Stan Hanson missed his punch from a corner and Les Smith drove into an empty net. It was almost one way traffic until a minute from half time when from a Harold Husall clearance, Johnny Wheeler beat Wolves centre-half Billy Wright, to set up Ray Parry whose shot went in off a post to equalise for Bolton.

The second half began in a downpour, but it was Bolton who began to get on top and in the 65th minute it was Parry who put Hassall through to shoot into the net off the underside of the bar. This was enough to give Bolton a 2-1 win and their first win at Molineux since 1936-37. The two sides were:

Wolves: Williams, Stuart, Shorthouse, Slater, Wright, Flowers, Smith, Broadbent, Swinbourne, Wilshaw, Mullen.

Bolton: Hanson, Ball, Banks, Bell, Barrass, Edwards, Holden, Moir, Wheeler, Hassall, Parry.

Wolves visited Burnden the following February for the return as joint leaders of the Division with Sunderland whilst Bolton were in 17th position. Bolton had been knocked out of the Cup the previous week at Birmingham in a fourth round tie whilst Wolves had beaten Arsenal on the same day. The only changes to the sides from the meeting at Molineux was the return of Nat Lofthouse for Harold Hassall who was injured for Bolton whilst Johnny Hancocks replaced Jimmy Mullen for Wolves.

The only goal of the first-half came on the half-hour, Lofthouse beat his England team mate Billy Wright to set up Parry who volleyed past Bert Williams. A minute into the second half Eric Bell grabbed Bolton's second only for Dennis Wilshaw to pull one back for Wolves. Harry Webster netted Bolton's third and Ray Parry grabbed the fourth after 70 minutes.

Two minutes later Bolton grabbed their fifth goal in controversial circumstances. Bert Williams came out to collect a Doug Holden cross and was charged by Nat Lofthouse. The ball fell loose and Willie Moir tucked it home. Unfortunately Williams was hurt and had to be stretchered off with Ron Flowers taking over in goal.

Wolves should have reduced the arrears when they were awarded a penalty for hand-ball by John Ball, but Johnny Hancocks, rattled the crossbar with his kick, the rebound being cleared. Ray Parry completed the scoring late on to give Bolton a resounding 6-1 win and complete his first ever League hat-trick.

More recently our last encounters were in season 1982-83 in the Second Division. Wolves won here 1-0 with a goal from Billy Livingstone five minutes from time, whilst at Molineux a scoreless draw resulted as Bolton ended a run of five successive defeats.

Our League record against Wolves is as follows:

	P	W	D	L	F	A
HOME	46	25	9	12	88	60
AWAY	46	8	9	29	49	118
TOTAL	92	33	18	41	137	178

JUNIOR WHITES NEWS

Today's mascot is Robert McKee of Union Road, Bolton. Robert is eight-years-old and attends Tonge Moor Primary School for whom he plays football in a forward position.

His favourite player is Tony Caldwell.

Don't forget that the first Junior Whites meeting of the season takes place this coming Monday 9th September at 6.30 p.m. in the Executive Club.

WARREN'S CENTURY

Barring injury, Warren Joyce will be starting a League game for the Wanderers for the 100th time today. Strangely enough his first full game was against today's visitors in April 1983 at Molineux. Warren grabbed the first of his eight League goals the following November in a 3-2 win over Orient at Burnden and missed only one game that season.

Last season he again missed only one game, through suspension and along with his three substitution appearances has played in more Bolton League games than any other current player apart from Sam Allardyce, who made 184 appearances in his first spell with the club.

IN RESERVE

The Wanderers reserves have made an impressive start to the season, opening with two victories.

A glut of goals were the order of the day for Bolton's opening Central League game of the season. The game was only a minute old when Daryl McCarty opened Bolton's account when he headed home a Paul Allen cross. Dean Roberts put Bolton two up when he headed home an Allen corner two minutes later and after 13 minutes Bolton put themselves firmly in the driving seat when Paul Allen rifled home.

Vicente pulled a goal back for Wolves after 21 minutes with a lob from 30 yards that left John Tanner in the Bolton goal stranded.

Roger Walker had a hand in Bolton's next two goals, his crosses enabling trialist Mark McGee and Daryl McCarty to score.

Wolves came back into the game in the second period with goals from Smith and Dougherty, the latter being a penalty awarded when Tanner brought down Russon.

In injury time Daryl McCarty completed his hat-trick with Bolton's sixth goal, heading home a George Shepherd cross, but almost immediately Wolves hit back when Wright ran clear to shoot past Tanner.

Down memory lane

15 years ago — 2nd September 1970: Bolton visited Sheffield Wednesday looking for their first double of the season having defeated the Yorkshiremen two weeks earlier at Burnden.

The Wanderers took the lead in the 65th minute when from a Terry Wharton corner, Roger Hunt side footed home at the near post. Ten minutes later Wednesday levelled the score when Alan Boswell misjudged a Steve Downes header and the ball went over the line before he could recover.

The point earned left Bolton third in the Second Division table, level on points, but behind Norwich and Cardiff on goal average.

5th September 1970: The Wanderers made another trip over the Pennines, this time to face Hull City. Gareth Williams was dropped, whilst Terry Wharton missed the game through injury, they were replaced by Ian Seddon and Paul Fletcher respectively.

The only goal of the game came from Hull after 76 minutes when a Chris Chilton header found the net. Bolton were hampered when they lost John Byrom for 20 minutes after he had collided with Hull 'keeper Ian McKenye.

9th September 1970: Blackburn Rovers visited Burnden for a League Cup second round tie. Bolton again had to make changes due to injuries, Gareth Williams returned whilst Arthur Marsh and Garry Jones came in for their first appearances of the season.

A single goal from Paul Fletcher after 56 minutes was all that separated the sides although the Wanderers had to thank 'keeper, Alan Bowell, for some fine saves, to help win the tie.

10 years ago — 6th September 1975: After registering their first win of the season at York the previous week, Bolton opened their account at Burnden with a 3-0 win over Southampton.

The Saints were current leaders of the Second Division but had no answer to the Bolton strike force. Hugh Curran, who almost missed the game with a knee injury opened the scoring after 14 minutes and Garry Jones grabbed the second in the 66th minute to kill off any hopes of a Southampton revival. John Byrom completed the scoring in the final minute, finishing off a move by Roy Greaves and Garry Jones.

10th September 1975: The Wanderers entertained Coventry City in the second round of the League Cup, and found their First Division opponents in fine form. The new floodlights were used at Burnden for the first time but the Wanderers League Cup hopes came to an end in the 3-1 defeat. City's goals came from current Bolton striker David Cross, Alan Green and Mike Ferguson with John Byrom on the mark for Bolton.

5 years ago — 2nd September 1980: Crystal Palace ended Bolton's interest in the League Cup with a 2-1 win at Selhurst Park to go through on a 5-1 aggregate. The Wanderers didn't go down without a fight as they led the First Division side for 70 minutes, thanks to a Brian Kidd goal but they were caught out going forward for more goals to save the tie.

Clive Allen equalised for the Londoners after 73 minutes and former England skipper Gerry Francis won them the game six minutes from time after a one-two with Mike Flanagan.

6th September 1980. Bristol Rovers visited Burnden Park with the Wanderers giving a League debut to £25,000 signing from Distillery, Gerry McElhinney who replaced the injured Paul Jones.

The game looked to be heading for a goalless draw until the 86th minute when Ashley Griffiths put through his own goal. In the final minute Alan Gowling made sure of the points when he converted a penalty kick.

David Felgate, Bolton's third choice 'keeper joined Lincoln City on loan after other loan periods at Crewe and Rochdale.

lead in the 27th minute when he punched a Paul Allen corner into his own net, when under no pressure. The Wanderers should have turned around with more goals to their credit after Roger Walker and Daryl McCarty had missed good chances but the second period was only two minutes old when they increased their lead.

Jimmy Phillips stepped up to take a free-kick, awarded to Bolton from 20 yards out, and he promptly blasted the ball into the bottom corner with Cheshire well beaten.

Daryl McCarty grabbed Bolton's third on the hour racing clear of the Rotherham defence to calmly place the ball past the 'keeper's despairing dive.

Mick Gooding scored United's goal with a volley from the edge of the area giving the Wanderers' debutant 'keeper Glen Campbell no chance. It was Campbell whom Bolton had to thank in the latter stages of the game with a couple of fine reflex saves from Andy Morris.

Mark Came gave a sound performance although he was booked a minute from half-time for a foul on Morris, Dean Roberts was also booked after the referee had warned him about a number of clumsy tackles.

Team: Campbell, Shepherd, Phillips, Darby, Came, Fitzpatrick, Walker, Allen, McCarty, Roberts, McGee. Sub: Winstanley.

"MEN ONLY"

Peter Gough is not the man he was thanks to the "Men Only" slimming club which is held here at Burnden Park on Monday nights.

Peter (pictured) lost six and a half stones in 15 weeks to earn the title of "Slimmer of the Year". The men are given a simple, sensible eating plan and a drink allowance — NO EXERCISE IS INVOLVED.

The club is run by Pat Nightingale, wife of club physio Peter Nightingale. She is a trained nursing sister who has run classes for ladies in Bolton and Farnworth for over 12 years.

GUEST SPOT

DAVID CROSS LOOKS BACK ON THE SEASON SO FAR

WHILE we haven't made a good start to the season by any stretch of the imagination, I really can't say we've done as badly as our lack of points would suggest.

From the players' point of view I don't think everything's as black as two points from four games would appear. I am sure things will sort themselves out before long.

But although you can argue that it's still early days, it is never too soon to start winning and I believe we weren't hard enough on ourselves after our first two League games.

We were obviously disappointed after doing quite well at home to Rotherham in our first game when we ended up drawing 1-1. We played well and that goal they scored five minutes from the end shouldn't have mattered one bit — the score should have been 3-1.

I'll be first to admit that I missed a couple of good scoring chances and I'm never happy about doing that.

Then against Doncaster we missed the chance to pick up three away points. I didn't really think we were worth anything more than a draw but we found ourselves a goal up going into the last five minutes and we should have held on.

Going into the Bury game sitting on two points instead of six affected the team's confidence. We knew we were under pressure to get a win. On the night things just didn't go for us and Bury played very well indeed and took their chances well.

If we had gone into that game riding high with six points and brimming with confidence I think we would have beaten Bury.

Instead of cursing our luck at dropping those four points in the first two games, we should have been kicking ourselves for not cashing in when we had the chance. Maybe we were guilty of complacency in saying we had played well.

You've got to work hard on making sure you don't make the same mistakes again.

We've got to concentrate, for instance, on finishing off the chances we create and at the other end holding on to what we've got.

If we can learn these lessons the poor start we have made could be a blessing in disguise.

Actually if we can reproduce the type of football we played against Bury — even in defeat — I think we will win more games than we will lose.

I can say in all honesty that I've played in worse teams than this one.

Thanks to the three points system, one win can work wonders.

We'll have no problem scoring goals from what I can see. I knew when I was considering moving to Bolton that since three players scored 20 goals apiece last season that this was a team that would create a lot of chances.

As things have gone for me personally I can't complain so far. Having started the season feeling established in the side, I've been in a good frame of mind and, thankfully, after missing those chances against Rotherham, I've been getting the goals.

I've always regarded myself as a good finisher of things and over the years I have learned the importance of concentration and the knack of knowing where to get on the end of things.

Something I have discovered is that however badly a team plays, a striker will almost get one good scoring chance in a game. And if I can take that chance then I believe I have done my job.

It's unusual for a striker not to get at least one good chance per game, but in fairness to Tony Caldwell in the early games, the chances haven't been falling to him. He hasn't missed any clear-cut chances.

I'm in front at the moment but I'm sure when he gets a couple more Tony and I will have a taste of friendly rivalry for the top scorer's spot.

I've always enjoyed good goalscoring partnerships wherever I have played — particularly at West Ham where I teamed up with "Pop" Robson and Stewart Pearson.

It is good to play alongside a sharp striker because I know that if I can win the ball in the box, even though I might not create a chance for myself there's always a good chance my partner will.

I suppose scoring goals has helped me but I've thoroughly enjoyed life with the Wanderers from the first day I arrived. Living in Bury I had been used to travelling down to West Brom every day and that was very hard work.

Now things are a lot more convenient and all I need concentrate on is my game.

BRITAIN'S BRIGHTEST NEW SOCCER POOL

WHAT IS "TOP SCORE" (6 from 49) POOL?

"Top Score" is a National Football Pools Competition organised by the English, Scottish and Welsh Clubs (Bolton Wanderers F.C. are a Main Agent and Shareholder of the Company). Its aims are to provide a value-for-money Competition in which the Public can participate each week with an opportunity of winning a share of the targeted £600,000 weekly prize money with a possible first prize of £250,000. All the profits will go back to Football.

HOW DOES "TOP SCORE" (6 from 49) WORK?

The aim of "Top Score" is to select the six individual highest scoring teams on the coupon. "Top Score" is a brand new football pool. Instead of picking score draws, you back your own hunches to find the top six scoring teams from the 49 on the coupon. Choose them correctly — you could hit the jackpot "Top Score" is everything you like about the pools — including the money. Every Saturday there's thousands of pounds to be won and there's a 1st, 2nd and 3rd dividend to play for.

"TOP SCORE" IS EASY — THE 1 MINUTE COUPON

You won't find an easier, simpler, quicker coupon to complete than "Top Score". Just identify your top scoring six, pop your crosses in the right box using a blue or black pen, fill in your name and address and we will arrange collection of your coupon and money. IT'S THAT SIMPLE.

HOW MUCH WILL IT COST?

Each line is 25p, the minimum amount you can place on the coupon is 50p. There will also be a column on the coupon for small perms.
